Life Foundation Introduces New 2009-2010 Board Members

Four new members join Life Foundation's Board of Directors

Honolulu, HI- October 25, 2009- Life Foundation announces four new members have joined its 2009-2010 Board of Directors. The Board oversees Life Foundation's work to provide free HIV testing services and care for those living with HIV/AIDS on Oahu.

New members are:

Linda Chang, MD - Professor of Medicine at University of Hawaii Manoa

Linda is a neurologist at the Queen's Medical Center and a Professor of Medicine at the John A. Burns School of Medicine at University of Hawaii. She has spent the last two decades studying the effects of HIV on the brains of individuals with HIV/AIDS.

"I hope to be able to contribute to the board with my background in medicine, neurology and HIV infection."

Rev. Jeff Lilley - Lutheran Church of Honolulu

Jeff has served as the pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America for nearly 20 years, and has served congregations in Kansas and Hawaii.

"I have a passion for defeating AIDS and serving those who live with it."

Dwayne Takeno - Grant Thornton

Dwayne is a senior manager in audit services at the Honolulu Office of Grant Thornton. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Hawaii Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Better Business Bureau of Hawaii.

"I joined the organization to give back to the community and to help support the mission of Life Foundation."

Dan Yoshimoto - Relation Educator of Couples and Parents

Dan has over 12 years experience in relationship education for couples and parents. He has a special interest in working with same-sex couples and LGBT issues.

"I joined Life Foundation's board of directors so I could connect with the local community in a meaningful way and to help make a positive difference in the lives of people living with HIV/AIDS."
